

Police Attack Vale Protestors

Below are photos of some of the wounds suffered by those from the MST protesting the criminal actions of Vale, responsible for the death of over 300 people when a dam holding toxic sludge from mining operations burst. These are just three examples of the 20 people injured, seven of whom were hospitalized.

